US Navy Day and Navy Band “Country Current” in West Valley City

WEST VALLEY CITY – West Valley City Mayor Mike Winder has declared Wednesday, September 7, 2011 as United States Navy Day in West Valley City in celebration of the United States Navy country and bluegrass band, “Country Current,” concert at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center on September 7, 2011 at 7:00 p.m.

“The United States Navy has played a vital role in the defense of America,” said Mayor Winder. “The United States Navy Band and its specialty group ‘Country Current’ represents the Navy and fosters the preservation of music by performing at government and military functions, as well as for the enjoyment of the civilians of this nation. I urge all citizens to attend performances by this outstanding organization.”

The concert is free, but tickets are required. Tickets will be available at two locations after August 23. Get tickets at the Cultural Center (address below), or by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope with number of tickets requested (6 max per household) to:

“Country Current,” from Washington D.C., is the Navy’s premier country music ensemble. The seven-member group was formed in 1973 and quickly established itself in all aspects of country and bluegrass music. The group has appeared at the White House and performed on the Grand Ole Opry, Nashville Now! and the Wheeling Jamboree. The group performs all types of country music from contemporary country rock to traditional bluegrass and western swing. With a fun-filled and family-friendly stage show, “Country Current” has been delighting its fans for nearly 40 years with their musical virtuosity and humor.
